GST DECLARATION

If you are submitting an entry to our Art Show you are required to read carefully and complete the information below.

NAME OF ARTIST (please print)

1 Do you have an ABN? YES / NO IF YES STATE ABN:
If NO proceed to question 3

2 Are you registered for GST? YES / NO
If YES the sale price you have nominated for your exhibited painting/s must include GST. You will be responsible for remitting this amount to the Australian Taxation Office.

3 If you do not have an ABN and you are a Hobby Artist we have included a "Statement by a Supplier".

4 If you do not quote your ABN (question 1) or sign the declaration form (Appendix A), we will be obliged to RETAIN 48.5% OF THE SALE PRICE and remit that amount to the Australian Taxation Office.

As The Rotary Club of Walkerville Inc are acting as a selling agent only and at no time does The Rotary Club of Walkerville own the artwork sold. The Rotary Club of Walkerville Inc cannot issue a tax invoice to a purchaser on behalf of the artist. If a purchaser requires a tax invoice (where GST is applicable for an artist) for the purpose of claiming tax credits, the artist (registered for GST) will be notified and asked to provide a tax invoice for that customer. This invoice must be provided before the sale can be concluded and payment to the artist made. All GST registered artists will be responsible for the payment of GST to the Australian Taxation Office (if applicable) for sales made on their behalf.
